Brendan Harris (D)

Candidate for Board of Finance Alternate, New Fairfield

Brendan Harris is a Senior HR Compliance Specialist at Boehringer Ingelheim, where he has worked for the past 10 years, spanning multiple areas including Payroll, Time and Leave Administration, HR Services, and Compliance. Prior to joining Boehringer Ingelheim, he worked at Allstate as a Liability Determination Adjuster, gaining valuable experience in analysis and accountability. Brendan and his wife Shannon are raising our three children in New Fairfield. He is deeply invested in the future of New Fairfield and is running for the position of Board of Finance alternate because I believe in responsible fiscal stewardship and community-focused decision-making.
