

Meet Our Candidates

Noel Mannion (R)

Candidate for Planning Commission, New Fairfield

Noel Mannion has over 35 years of experience in commercial real estate with most of that time working for a private real estate developer/owner of retail and office buildings in the tri-state area. In addition to managing the financial and physical condition of the properties Noel has appeared before many planning and zoning boards to make presentations for the purpose of obtaining site plan approval(s) or variances. He is also responsible for environmental matters affecting the portfolio (investigations, remediation, etc.). In addition to his subject matter expertise, Noel is committed to fairly assessing proposals, presentations and due diligence materials and acting/voting in a manner consistent with New Fairfield's regulations and conservation/growth objectives.
