David M. Zeh (D)

Candidate for Planning Commission, New Fairfield

David Zeh moved to New Fairfield three years ago with his family including his wife, son, and daughter. Liking the system of government that was in place at the time, he joined the Permanent Building Committee to help continue to build a strong community, where he continues to volunteer. David is a registered Architect and works at Regeneron Pharmaceuticals in Tarrytown, NY as a Senior Project Manager, in part, managing the companies $3 Billion dollar campus expansion. David is an Eagle Scout from 1984, Staten Island and has been awarded many accolades over his scouting career including the Doctorate of Commissioners Science, Distinguished Commissioner, and the Silver Beaver award. In his spare time, David is training to be a Bonsai Tree artist and has quite the collection of trees.
