Jeff Alviti (U)

Candidate for Zoning Commission, New Fairfield

Jeff Alviti has been public school teacher in New York State for 20 years. He has spent many years coaching, including 12 years as a varsity lacrosse coach at NFHS, as well as a coach for various youth sports teams in New Fairfield. He donated hundreds of hours of time to help build JJP field and has been helping maintain numerous fields on the high school campus. This summer Jeff rebuilt the crumbling football shed that the senior class traditionally paints every year, as well as the staircase up to the press box at the stadium field. Jeff attends many BOF and BOS meetings and regularly speaks during public comment at those meetings fighting for what he believes is best for New Fairfield. Jeff is looking to bring his passion for New Fairfield to the Zoning Commission.
