Robert M. Rollmann (U)

Candidate for Zoning Board of Appeals, New Fairfield

Bob Rollmann is a CPA with over 40 years' public accounting experience working with a wide variety of clients, including those in the construction and public sector (i.e., municipalities, and local governmental entities) industries. Bob retired as partner in charge of Quality Management at PKF O'Connor Davies, LLP, an accounting and consulting firm with 22 offices in the United States. In preparation for retirement, Bob and his wife were looking to move to a lake community and fell in love with New Fairfield. A hobby of Bob's has been home improvement and in connection with a recent expansion of their home, Bob experienced working with the Zoning Board of Appeals ("ZBA") and looks forward to using his knowledge, skills and experience, as property owners navigate through zoning regulations compliance with the ZBA.
