

Meet Our Candidates

Danette Onofrio (D)

Candidate for Library Director, New Fairfield

Danette is currently a Library Director.

Danette Onofrio serves on the New Fairfield Library Board, is a member of the Friends of the New Fairfield Public Library and the Women's Club of Danbury/New Fairfield, and a board member of the Community Service Club of New Fairfield. Danette worked for a legislative body of a small city for two decades before opening D.R. Shepard Consulting and Services in 2006. Danette's focus is to continue to bring quality programs to the library and to assist as the New Fairfield Library moves forward with non-taxpayer-funded renovations to the adult library and community room. She also supports promoting leisure, learning and entertainment opportunities that grow the library into the hub of the community.
