Dewey Moy (U)

Candidate for Board of Finance, New Fairfield

Dewey Moy recently retired with over 45 years at major companies like WWE, Reader's Digest, A&P, and General Foods. His experience has primarily been in finance including cost accounting, financial analysis, reporting, strategic planning, global division finance and financial systems. He has also worked closely with Operations, Legal, Human Resources, IT, and senior executives. He served as Pack 142's Chairman back in the late 1990's during which the pack had grown to the largest in Fairfield County. Dewey and his family have lived in New Fairfield for 35 years. He is concerned about the deep political divisions in New Fairfield and hopes to use his extensive financial background to hope to bridge the divide. He also aims to take the mystery and jargon out of the town's finances and present the budgets and financial decisions in a clear and easily understandable way so informed decisions can be made.
